KTTV FOX 11 REPORTER CHRIS BLATCHFORD REPORTS ON LARRY GUIDI AND

GUIDI RESIGNS FROM JOB

By Sandy Mazza Staff Writer

07/15/2010 06:37:05 PM PDT

City of Hawthorne Mayor Larry Guidi arraignment on two felony counts, theft. At issue is a commercial food blender he allegedly stole from a city warehouse.

in court in downtown Los Angeles for one commercial burglary and one grand

Hawthorne Mayor Larry Guidi, who is facing criminal theft charges, has resigned from his job at the city's school district.

The Hawthorne school board considered firing Guidi, according to its Wednesday night agenda. Instead, the panel agreed to a settlement with the longtime facilities and warehouse manager.

The agreement calls for Guidi's immediate resignation. The district will make a one-time payment of nearly $17,000 - or two months pay - to Guidi, the settlement states. He also will receive pay for unused vacation time.

Shelley Rose, assistant superintendent of human resources at the Hawthorne School District, said she would not comment because it is a confidential personnel matter.

In June, Guidi was charged with two felonies related to the theft of a commercial food mixer from a school district warehouse in March. He was placed on paid administrative leave April 6 when the District Attorney's Office began investigating the theft, which was reportedly caught on surveillance video.

Prosecutors charge that Guidi stole the device on March 25 after hiding it in a district warehouse. He has worked at the district since 2000 and served as mayor for 17 years.

Guidi allegedly told investigators that he took the mixer to make pizza in his home pizza oven. His attorney, Walter Urban, said the mixer was old and going to be thrown out.

The value of the mixer is important because if it is worth less than $400, the charges against Guidi would be misdemeanors instead of felonies. If he is convicted of a felony, Guidi would have to resign his post as mayor and face up to three years in prison....

The Immaculate Promotion

Back when Larry Guidi controlled a solid majority on the city council, Police Sergeant Heffner was somehow promoted to Police Chief Heffner. Nobody could explain how captains and lieutenants were skipped over. Some called it the Immaculate Promotion, others the Miracle on 126th Street.

Many claimed Hawthorne Police Officers were upset. All we know is they supported Danny Juarez in the last mayoral election. Juarez lost the mayoral contest by a few votes but continues to serve as councilman. Larry continues as mayor, but lost his majority stranglehold on the council. The new majority fired Guidi's loyal city manager and "Sergeant Chief" Heffner soon quit. It's been more than three days and no resurrection yet!

The city of Hawthorne overstepped its own rules and spent thousands of taxpayer dollars to ease traffic in front of the mayor's house and the homes of two council members.....But the real breakthrough, she (Councilmember Ginny Lambert) said, came when she discovered an untapped state account with several thousand dollars earmarked for Hawthorne. She said she couldn't remember the details of that account, except that she persuaded

USED TRUCK SALESMAN LARRY GUIDI?

Could this be one of those "brother-in-law" deals you mention so often, Larry?

Arias also said she told Hawthorne police during her interview that on one occasion Guidi and a man she later identified to the Daily Breeze as Velez arrived at S&W in an older model white pickup truck and, with the help of a company worker, loaded the truck bed with goods that had been removed from impounded vehicles and drove away. She said she did not know what happened to the goods, which included car speaker boxes and stereos. (March 1, 2004 Daily Breeze)
